If you have an interest in North American Sportponies, you may want to consider becoming a member of the North American Sportpony Registry. The NASPR was founded to support and promote the breeding and enjoyment of North American Sportponies. The NASPR's goal is to develop the North American Sportpony to the highest possible standard in North America through careful maintenance of their registries, studbooks and the annual Breeding Stock Inspections.

The NASPR serves their members through promotion, marketing services, education, and the recognition of excellence with special breeding honors and performance awards.
